

VOID TREATMENT

COPPER NAPHTHENATE

2% Copper as metal

Fill Under Pressure

Copper Naphthenate solution is injected under pressure into poles that have decay or insect voids present. After identifying the void area, preservative is applied using a special nozzle. The oil-based preservative penetrates deeply into all areas and will protect against future biological attack. A contact insecticide may also be added.